

I cannot recommend M2architecture enough!
Working with David Menzies has been a very effortless and pleasing experience from meeting him until the final drafts were completed.

I would describe David as a 'Can do' architect who listens to the client wants and needs and implements a solution to fit the clients brief and not the other way around while always meeting customer expectations in very professional and timely matter.

Helen Rule